

Professional Development Activity: National After-school Association Conference 2007

Name: Rachel Chapman

Date of Activity: March 22-23, 2007

Activity Title:

NAA Conference:

Creating a Bully-Free Environment

Combining Fun, Academics, Character Building

Confidence through Self-Control

Inspired Program Direction

Low-Cost Staff Motivation Ideas

Activity Description:

I attended the National After school Association Conference in Phoenix, Arizona, where I learned about bullying prevention, motivating staff, helping students set and reach goals, fostering confidence and self-control, and combining fun, academics, and character building. I learned how to incorporate an African game that builds students' concentration and ability to focus and learn. I also visited an after school site in Phoenix.
